

Homestead National Monument of American Heritage Center Dedication Special Event May 20, 2007

Afternoon and Evening Programs - Yesterday, Today, and Tomorrow

Heritage Center

3:00 - 7:00 Building Open for Tours

3:30 – 4:30 Presidents of Westward Expansion - Jefferson and Lincoln

Presidential Appearances - Sponsored by Hauenstein Center for Presidential Studies,
Grand Valley State University, Michigan

4:30 – 6:00 Meet the Living Homesteaders

Hear the stories and recollections of homesteaders who filed their claims in the 1950's and 1960s. They are participating in the Living Homesteader Convention.

6:00 – 7:00 Atz Kilcher

Music by a Son of homesteaders

Freeman School

3:00 – 7:00 School Open for Class

Visit the school marm and experience a pioneer school day

Tallgrass Prairie

3:30 – 4:30 Cavalry Skills Demonstration

Fort Riley Commanding General's Mounted Color Guard

Education Center

3:00 - 7:00 Building Open for Historic Quilt Exposition

Sponsored by the International Quilt Study Center

3:00 - 4:30 American Indian Children's Activities

Phyllis Stone, Daughter of Lakota-Sioux Chief

4:30 – 5:30 Distance Learning Connection with NASA Astronaut Clayton Anderson

Live interaction with Mr. Anderson from Florida discussing his tasks on the International Space Station and the Frontier of the future: space.

3:00 - 7:00 Food and Refreshments Available

Vendor located at the east end of the parking lot of Education Center